EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS

The House of Engagement and More

An Erasmus+ project, bringing together universities and NGOs from six European countries

The goal: promote student social engagement by creating a bridge between formal and non-formal education, developing students' personal and professional skills alongside their university studies

By setting up Houses of Engagement on university campuses physical or virtual spaces that link academic learning and civic engagement, making student participation a pillar of university life

Join the HOME community on LinkedIn where you can meet NGOs, students and universities from all over Europe! →

Founded in 2013 in Marseille, Eurasia net is an NGO dedicated to fostering cultural, educational and artistic exchanges between Europe and Asia

We promote international mobility as a means of learning, gaining experience and integrating into society

Our Goal :

To create a generation of young people who are committed, mobile and open to the world

So basically you can...

...Live abroad in Europe for free...

...doing environmental, cultural,
educational volunteering projects...

...with other volunteers from all around Europe...

...learn a language, meet new people, immerse yourself in another culture...

...develop skills and competences for personal, social and civic development, building a network of contacts that transcends borders!
